Dear Allen, Just before I leave here I should like to say a final thankyou for that superb lunch yesterday and a wonderful time in general. If I say that I have never enjoyed a visit more - and that is saying a lot - I really mean it. It has been a most stimulating experience.

It was good of you to give me so much time in the office yesterday and to listen so patiently to my philosophy. I was never more sincere in my beliefs.

Thank you again.

Yours ever,

Eric Jones
